

Coming Home from the life of Langston Hughes by Floyd Cooper

Standards: Language Arts: II.2.2.a Write a brief personal descriptive narrative that: Presents a logical sequence of events.

As a group read the story. Have the students bring a picture of themselves at a special event. Have them create a story map of the event. Then have them write their story in a paragraph that presents a logical sequence of events. Have the students create a powerpoint slide, a poster or some other creative way to present their information.